

Washington Business Dynamics Awarded GSA Public Building Service Contract

Washington, DC – The GSA Public Buildings Service (PBS), Office of Portfolio Management, awarded a contract to Washington Business Dynamics, LLC (WBD), to serve as GSA's independent, third-party reviewers of PBS rent bills to ensure their accuracy and consistency.

GSA is the landlord for more than 400 government agencies. The Rent Bill Management Program (RBM) team, located in San Antonio, is responsible for not only financial reliability, but meeting customer expectations throughout the life cycle of both leased and owned assets.

"We are pleased to continue our long-standing support of our federal partners to optimize their performance across large and complex financial portfolios," said Scott Caldwell, WBD President. "We are also grateful for our partnership with SBA-approved mentor, LMI, who we have partnered with on this contract and who has a long standing history of supporting GSA's PBS."

Washington Business Dynamics is a veteran-owned management consulting firm specializing in acquisition, finance, strategy, and analytics. WBD applies advanced analytical tools to develop evidence-based solutions to meet our client's goals for tomorrow.

